

American Battle Monuments Commission – World War One Sites

Routes of Interest London #1

Royal Air Force Museum London, Colindale Station, Hendon.

For Underground (Subway), and Walking.

Hours: 10am - 5pm November through February

10am - 6pm March through October

Address: Royal Air Force Museum London,

Grahame Park Way, London, NW9 5LL

Tel: 020 8205 2266

Note: The London area RAF Museum. There is an RAF in World War One exhibition and the RAF is celebrating its own centennial. It is a world class museum with a breathtaking collection.

1. Go to the London Underground.
2. Head for the Northern Line (the black line on the maps) going North.
3. A central stop on the Northern Line is King's Cross Station, and Northern Line Branches merge at Camden Town.
4. You need to be on an EDGEWARE BRANCH, or "EDGEWARE" bound train.
5. If on the wrong line you can change at Campden Town.
6. Get off at COLINDALE STATION
7. Leaving the station turn left
8. Go straight for a 10 min. walk; stay on the right side of the street.
9. Cross the traffic Circle carefully.
10. You will see the RAF Museum on the right hand side.
11. Turn left out of the Station and walk straight along the road for about 10 minutes. –
12. You will need to cross a roundabout and to stay on the right hand side of the road as the pavement runs out on the left after the roundabout.
13. The Museum is on the right hand side of the road.